

Perranzabuloe Parish Council

Noticeboard Policy

1. Introduction

Perranzabuloe Parish Council owns 12 noticeboards around the parish which are used to display notices relating to parish council meetings and activities and to inform the local community about county and national consultations, elections and other local government news and information.

2. Noticeboard Management

- a) The noticeboards are maintained, and the content is managed by the Parish Council.
- b) When there is sufficient space for other notices, community groups are permitted to publicise local events, but parish council notices will always take precedence.
- c) Any notices may be removed at any time by the Parish Council for any reason.
- d) No business or commercial ventures may be advertised on these boards.
- e) No party-political notices may be displayed.
- f) All notices must be appropriate and in good taste.
- g) Notices displayed must be no larger than A4.
